

SERESIN ESTATE

LEAH PINOT NOIR 2012

---

LISA PERROTTI-BROWN, THE WINE ADVOCATE
90+ POINTS

“...offers a slightly reduced nose of tires and tar over a good core of black cherries, pepper and Mediterranean herbs...tight-knit and reticent in the mouth with earth and herbal layers fleshing out the chewy tannins, crisp acid and long finish.”

JULIA HARDING MW, JANCISROBINSON.COM
16.5 POINTS

“...Gentle and red-fruited nose. Slight stemmy note (herbal and savoury as opposed to green/unripe) adding further to the freshness. Beautifully fragrant. Light floral note and a touch of orange – tangy and full of energy. Very sweet and gentle on the palate too but with lovely freshness and brightness. Gentle but long. Caressing fruit sweetness...”

JAMIE GOODE, THE WINE ANORAK
93 POINTS

“There’s a savoury, spicy edge to the supple, fresh red cherry and plum fruit, Some fine spiciness but also a bit of robust meatiness. Beautifully expressive.”

NICK STOCK, JAMESSUCKLING.COM
94 POINTS

“With a compelling, complex and fresh nose of blue fruits and ripe cherries, this has plenty of bracken and sous bois on the make. It's leafy too and the oak is gently played. The palate has impressive tannin articulation while the sturdy structure is the key, supporting ripe, dark fruit flavors in the plum to cherry spectrum. This holds long and is nicely done.”

MICHAEL COOPER
4.5*

“Full-coloured, it is fragrant, mouthfilling and savoury, with deep, youthful plum, cherry, spice and dried herb flavours, showing excellent ripeness and complexity.”

